at Lincoln

Leadership is Administration's strong point

Since Lincoln High School opened its doors in 1923, the student body has tripled, the faculty has increased by 400% and the administration has changed only three times. Principal Melvin Bowen has been here since 1958. Vice-principal Robert Wilson and Registrar Kathleen Schiffer have both served Lincoln for 25 years.

Pleasant, friendly and efficient describes Lincoln personnel. Mrs. Charlene Bjork serves the counselling office and Mrs. Lois Gabler, associate, divides her time between the business and English departments. (above center) Mrs. Wright stops typing to answer a question.

Mrs. Alice Bowling, nurse, was especially busy at the beginning of second semester with immunization certificates required by a new state law. Mrs. Ada Mae Fehrs, bookkeeper, keeps books for all clubs, Railsplitter publications, and choir groups. Most students meet her at the sold supply window.

Counselors guide students toward goals

Led by Miss Alice Anderson the Lincoln High counselors were hard at work again this year, helping students find the right schedules.

The counselors helped students in many different ways. For example, Mr. Dennis Peacock was instrumental in finding many jobs for students in need of work, and computerized career exploration was introduced.

Library is a place to learn

For students seeking material beyond the classroom and the textbook the library provides 20,000 books, 15,000 magazines (old and new) and 2000 non-print magazines.

The librarians, Miss Helen Holt and Miss Lillian Cole, select, organize, direct, and assist in the use of these resources. They are ably assisted by Mrs. Mary Jane Willey, library clerk, Mrs. Roberta McDonald, volunteer and the student staff.

Pleasant surroundings, a well-rounded collection of materials and professional library services, are extensively used and enjoyed by the student body.

Languages provide enrichment

The Foreign Language Department offers four languages: French, Spanish, Russian, and Latin. A one semester language survey course is also offered to acquaint students with all four languages.

Students receive training in speaking, understanding, reading and writing the language of their choice. This would help students to better understand other cultures and increase English vocabulary.

Lincoln is the only Des Moines school to offer Russian and has the only Russian typewriter in the area. Language survey is also unique to Lincoln.

The English department offers a wide variety of writing improvement and communication classes, such as speech, drama, literature, reading improvement, debate and journalism.

Sophomores are required to take a basic English class unless eligible to pass out of English and take one of the 28 elective courses offered. A speech credit is also required for graduation.

Opportunities to work in plays, newspaper, yearbook, and forensics round out the program.

Social Science classes study past, present

Social Science department is expanding every year. Sophomores are required to take a full year of United States History, while seniors are required to take a semester of Government and a semester of either Economics or Consumer Business.

Various subjects offered are United States History, World History, World History-Western, World History non-Western, Government, Economics, Psychology, Russian History, International Relations, Anthropology, Sociology, Afro-American History, Revolution, Social Reform, 20th Century Europe, Asian Studies, Emerging Nations, and Latin American Studies.

All of these subjects provide a broader look at our country and the surrounding world.

Math courses challenge students

The Mathematics Department offers a large field of classes. Students may take in order, General Math, Algebra I, geometry, Algebra II, Trigonometry and Calculus.

The Math Lab offers students an opportunity to study at their own rate. Lincoln also has a computer terminal available to all students.

Eleven Industrial Arts classes are offered. These are important classes that any student can sign up for to learn new skills that could possibly help in choosing a future career.

All of the classes are two semester courses and include Auto Mechanics I and II, Metal I and II, Wood Technology I and II, Basic Drafting I and II, and Architectural Drawing I and II.

Business Education paves way for future careers

Business Education develops job skills for the future. Students are offered accounting, business arithmetic, business law, data processing, shorthand and typing. The skills learned can be used in business and industry.

Three programs provide on-the-job training. Distributive Education (DECA), Executive Internship, and Office Education (OE). DECA and OE arrange for students to go to school half days and spend the other half on the job. Executive interns receive on-the-job training all day long in businesses involved in their chosen fields. Both programs give credit for the business experience gained.

Fine Arts strives for excellence

Art Fundamentals is a one year course which covers the basics of art. This is necessary for students planning to go on to Drawing II and III or Crafts II and III in their second and third year. These classes involve projects in a large number of mediums, such as watercolor, ink, pencil, weaving, jewelry, and pottery.

Vocal and instrumental music offerings have something for everyone: Prep Choir, Concert Choir, A Cappella, Glee Club, Swing Choir I, Swing Choir II, Music Theory, Marching Band, Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Concert Band and Stage Band.

Student Life

Campus Life

at Lincoln

Officers for Student Council are John Scanlon, chief justice; Jay Squires, vice president; Andy Ward, president; Bill Durbin, treasurer; and Anna Williams, secretary.

Student Council accomplishments are many

Under the direction of President Andy Ward, Student Council planned many activities and improvements this year.

The canned food drive was a success, with 20 needy families being supplied with a turkey and canned foods.

Money raised from the Christmas Dance, the St. Patrick's Day Dance, and the selling of goblets was used to paint the parking lot poles gold and to purchase standards which will surround the school seal in the front lobby.

Many students from Lincoln were also involved in the Inter-city Student Council. Jay Squires served as the Parliamentarian. (Bob White was the representative at large.)

Six juniors participate in UN Tour

Juniors chosen from Lincoln to attend the UN trip were Kristie Close, Kim Shapell, Martha Crist, Dave McCleary, Tim Gruis, and Cheryl Doud (not pictured). The Statue of Liberty (right) was one of the many historic sites viewed on the UN trip.

Spring vacation for six of Lincoln's juniors was spent taking in the sights of Manhattan, New York and Washington, D.C. Kristie Close, Martha Crist, Cheryl Doud, Tim Gruis, Dave McCleary, and Kim Shapell were selected to participate in the United Nations Tour.

Along with the many historic sites that they visited, they also enjoyed shopping along Fifth Avenue and viewing the Broadway hit "Annie."

Exchange student contributes Chikako Sugiyama discusses her classes and future plans with Mr. Wilson, senior advisor.

Senior Chikako Sugiyama, from Zama City, Kanagawa, Japan, was welcomed at Lincoln as our foreign exchange student. Chikako stays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook. "They're a nice family and I am very grateful for all they've done for me," commented Chikako.

Chikako was a member of the Lincoln volleyball team, and graduated with the class of 1978. She would like to go on to college to study to be a doctor.

Gaumer, Gable: Homecoming Royalty

The Coronation Assembly climaxed Homecoming week. Queen candidates were Kelly Carle, Karan Docken, Kay Gable, Debbie Seeber, and Lynn Webb. King candidates were Tom Dusterhoft, Brian Gaumer, Ted Heggen, Jack Rush, and Brian True.

Queen Kay Gable, who describes herself as a Younker's Charm School flunkee, is active in many organizations, including four years of girl's softball and cheerleading, and one year of Dorian Art Club. Kay is also a staff writer for the yearbook and serves on the Prom Committee.

King Brian Gaumer, spent one semester of his junior year as an executive intern. Brian was also in football for three years, wrestling for four years, and Spanish Club for one year.

Homecoming activities show spirit

Homecoming activities began early in the year. Because of the extremely high cost of liability insurance, the school was unable to sponsor the Senior sign. Senior Lynn Webb organized the building of the sign, and many volunteers made the sign a success.

The week of Homecoming started with the Powder Puff football game, won by Pep Club 27-7. Other activities of the week included the dance and hat, sock, overall, and color days.

Friday, a pep assembly was held during second and third hour. The king and queen were announced at the assembly. The assembly was led by Mike Clark, master of ceremonies, and Sue Meredith, mistress of ceremonies. Entertainment was provided by the Lincoln Swing Choir and the Elvisettes.

Homecoming was highlighted by the game against East. Despite rain and mud, the Rails came out on top 30-14.

Pep assemblies encourage fan enthusiasm:

President Don Lewellin

Vice-president Ed McClure

Pep assemblies were organized by the captains of the varsity cheerleaders, Kelly Carle and Karan Docken. Batons, Drill Team, Flags, Pep Band, and the "Elvisettes" helped the cheerleaders present the student body with music, dances, and skits. Representatives from various sports encouraged students to support them.

Pep Club supported the cheerleaders by getting the student body "fired up." Besides cheering at the games and at the pep assemblies, Pep Club decorated the gym and field for Homecoming festivities. They also supported bus trips to the out-of-town games.

Pep Club beat the Batons, Cheerleaders, Drill Team, and Flags in the Powder Puff game 28-6. Leading Pep Club were Don Lewellin, president; Ed McClure, vice-president; Robin Cappola, treasurer; and Gina Niccolino, secretary.

Varsity cheerleaders had a busy year. Once again they were divided into two separate squads: basketball and football. The basketball squad supported cross country, boys swimming, and boys varsity basketball. The football squad supported girls swimming, wrestling, girls varsity basketball, and varsity football.

Each summer the cheerleaders are up at 7 a.m. practicing in Lincoln's parking lot three times a week, while twice a week they have practice at one of the cheerleaders houses. Hard work and effort is put into practice each summer.

M & M's were sold as one of this year's fund raising projects. With this money the cheerleaders plan to help pay for the new sophomore uniforms for the 1978-79 school year.

Skits were performed by the cheerleaders at a few of the assemblies.

Sophomore cheerleaders show high spirits

Sophomore Cheerleaders, chosen from four southside junior high schools, showed high spirits in all their activities. They cheered enthusiastically at sophomore and JV football games, girls and boys basketball games, and JV wrestling matches.

Some fund raising ideas, which helped buy new uniforms, were candy sales and BLH stickers.

Flags worked as a team with hard work and long practice hours to achieve precision performances. They participated in Homecoming events such as sophomore football halftime entertainment, Powderpuff game and pep assembly. They performed precision halftime routines at basketball games, and presented color guard and dance routines at various assemblies. Also they participated in contests throughout the year.

In order to make money for the purchase of new flags, boots, and for a future trip, the squad sold candy, and Tupperware, and sponsored a bake sale and a garage sale.

The club sponsor is Mrs. Toni Dann and officers were Debi McCleary, captain; Gina Brauer, treasurer; Maureen Casey, secretary.

Martha Crist, Eanne Jackson, Chris Burt, and Rhonda Andreanni robot during "Star Wars."

Led by captains Cassie Cioccio and Rhonda Kilgore and sponsored by Linda Ritland and Sue DeWees, Drill Team received second place honors in state competition. Rhonda Kilgore won Miss Drill Team of Iowa and went on to compete nationally in California.

Drill Team began early marching with the Band in the Iowa Shrine Parade and the All American City Festival.

They entertained many fans during basketball halftimes, performing to many popular songs. Senior march presented a disco to "Stayin' Alive," and was finished with "The Times of Your Life."

New Band director brings success

The 1977-1978 Railsplitter Band, under the new direction of Mr. Karl Killinger, represented Lincoln at many sport events and parades. For the first time, the band will make a trip outside the continental U.S. to participate in the King Kamahameha Parade in Honolulu, Hawaii, June 10. To raise money for this trip, the band sold candy bars, jewelry, cheese boxes, and coupon books.

As a Concert Band, Band members presented a winter and spring concert, and competed in Concert Band contest.

Drill Team, Batons, and Flags added color to the Band, performing many routines to the many band selections.

Jazz Band performs big band sounds

The Railsplitter Jazz Band performed their first concert in December. A snow storm handicapped attendance but the concert was still a success.

February 9 the band went to Hiatt Junior High to perform for the students. On February 10 and 11, the band ventured to Drake University for the Jazz Spectacular.

March 2 was an event for the whole southside when the jazz bands from Kurtz, McCombs and Weeks Junior Highs performed in the Southside Jazz Festival, along with the Railsplitter Jazz Band.

A combined show with the Jazz Band and the Rail Singers was held April 20.

A cappella and Concert Choir's year was highlighted by their spring tour to Kansas City. During the tour the choirs sang at schools and churches and saw the musical "Fiddler on the Roof", at Chanhassen Theatre.

Many fund raising projects were held to make the trip possible. Some of the projects held were the BLH drive, candy sales, a paper drive, and popcorn sale. Other fund raisers were a tee-shirt sale, a cheese sale, and selling of sponges.

In addition to the tour, the choirs gave concerts at junior highs, banks, and their annual Christmas Concert. Both choirs also participated in Large-Group contest.

Swing Choir visits Maracaibo, Venezuela

Swing Choir, under the direction of Carol Stewart, was chosen to represent the United States on President Carter's Friendship Force Trip. The choir left April 12 for Maracaibo, Venezuela, where they lived with families until their return to Des Moines on April 22.

While in Maracaibo, the choir gave many concerts; however, they also toured the surrounding area. One high point of the trip included swimming in the Caribbean Sea.

The Swing Choir performed a wide variety of tunes during the year. They sang the rock songs "Foreplay-Long Time" by Boston and "Grand Illusion" by Styx. They also sang the swing tune "You're So Mean" arranged by Hollis Sundberg. Other songs include a Bette Midler tune "Higher and Higher," "Songs from the Wood" by Jethro Tull, and Barry Mannilow's "I Write the Songs."

The choir's first performance was at the Homecoming assembly and concluded with a performance at Class Day. They finished runner-up at the Kennedy Swing Choir Competition.

President of the choir for the year was Jim Stevens, and the Vice-President was Dave Jones.

Tim Fitzgerald and Dave Landess (right) take a moment to talk, before digging into their music.

The main style of song that the Rail Singers perform is mellow, pop tunes. Songs from the musical "The Wiz" were the highlights of this year's choir. Choreography was led by Mr. Richard Baber, the choir's director.

Participating in the Kennedy Festival, Cedar Rapids, was one of the the big events of the year. The choir also performed for many conventions, for Mount Pleasant High School, and for southsiders, at their spring show, with the Lincoln Jazz Band.

After working diligently for the Kennedy Swing Festival, the members of the Rail Singers take some time to relax. Dawn Lujan (right) asks Mr. Baber about a problem with her music.

Not pictured: Cheri Gauldin, Robyn Batye.

"Prep Choir is smaller in size this year, but it was chosen that way. We have a more select group," Mr Baber, vocal director of Prep Choir said. Members of the group total 65.

Prep Choir performed two vocal promotion concerts for Lincoln bound junior high students. The choir also performed three major concerts with the addition of a contest.

Glee Clubs have successful year

Boy's Glee is a new choral group at Lincoln, consisting of 20 male voices. The glee club gave a number of performances for community organizations, and three major concerts at Lincoln. They participated in the State Music Contest this spring.

Mr. Richard Baber is the director of both Girl's and Boy's Glee.

Girl's Glee performed three seasonal concerts: Christmas, midwinter, and spring. In April they also attended the State Music Contest. Girl's Glee totaled 80 members. "The size of the group is two and one half times greater than in previous years. Girl's Glee has a high level of participation," said Mr. Baber.

Lincoln Art Players, as usual, was a smash in their annual fall play, "The Good Doctor." Written by Neil Simon, the play is based on ten different short stories. Characters and situations range from tragic to comic, from innocent to naughty, and from absurd to vaudevillian. The scenes are all unrelated; some are humorous and some are serious.

The scenes were tied together with the narration of a writer, played by Ken Hammer. The play was directed by Mr. Dennis Hildreth, with the help of student director, George Caudill.

“Our Town” presents serious drama

"Our Town" was a more serious type of acting and a different kind of drama than Lincoln has ever seen. There was no scenery present and very few props, which called for the audience to use its imagination much more. However, many sound effects helped fill in the gaps.

The cast of about 30 members was directed by Mr. Denis Hildreth and Assistant Director Anna Williams.

Major roles were played by John Hoffman, Stage Manager and narrator; Laurie Anderson, Emily Webb; and Kevin Horner, George Gibbs.

Performances were March 16 and 17.

An award of outstanding and State Honors were earned by Jeff Robertson, Dan Reeves, Murry Althiem and Russ State for their group mime "Clockwork Lemon". This is the highest award given by the Iowa High School Speech Association. Because of their achievement they were able to attend the All-State festival in Indianola.

Lincoln sent six mimes to the contest and all six received one ratings at State including solos by John Hoffman, Tony Erickson, and Lee McLaughlin.

The Puppet Theater consisted of nine puppets. They are Amy, Ralph, Samson, Edwina, Clem, Enzo, Peabody, Felicia, and Chris. They performed several shows for pre-schools around the city.

Dorian Art brightens school year

Elwanger, Tim Norton, Cindy Selby, Mike Denny, Craig Duede, Mark Stoud, Margret Goodling, Mike Gatske, Kirby Wilmore, Greg Wheeler, Kevin Smith, Dale Adams, and Todd Kinchloe.

Dorian Art Club added a touch of color to Lincoln during the school year. Mr. Dale McLean, head of the art department, works with club officers: Rick Montgomery, president; Janet Carter, secretary; Ellen Arent, treasurer; and Kay Gable, historian; to keep its members on the go. During the course of the year Dorian Art lost five members at the end of the first semester, Rick Byrd and Denise Nation graduated, Brent Boyd, Cathy Drew, and Sandra Snook went to internship.

The DAP (Dorian Art People) take part in activities such as decorating the halls at Christmas time, making Christmas cards which are sent to other Des Moines schools, decorating for dances, posters for sports events and the purchasing of art work for the Lincoln art collection. Each year the club adds a piece of art to the collection which is a continuing gift to the school.

Dorian Art Club took second place in a van painting contest held at Vets Auditorium. The team was given a van and a 2-hour time limit to paint on their design.

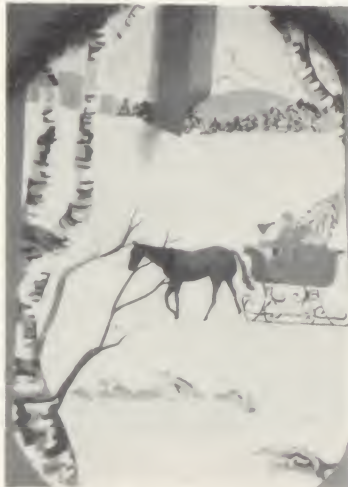

Six members from the club won Gold Key awards in the art contest held at Brandeis this year: Sandra Snook, Kirby Wilmore, and Janet Carter. Other winners were Jessie Gomez, Mark Marturello, and Tami Miller.

Club officers Janet Carter, Rick Montgomery, and Kay Gable hold discussion during homeroom.

Dorian Art Club divided into groups and painted different Christmas scenes that are displayed in the front hall the week before Christmas vacation. The separate pictures were framed in 5-foot wooden oval frames and painted green. The group put much effort and time into the hall decorations and the paintings brought spirit to the students during the Christmas season.

First Year Class Officers:

President Graig Mettelle, Parliamentarian Mitch Plemone, Secretary Rosie Closimo, Treasurer Paula Steinbach, Vice President Pam Enos, Historian Diane McReynolds.

Paula Steinbach works with an assistant at the Des Moines Osteopathic Center.

DECA is a nation wide program for high school students, which offers students the opportunity to learn while on the job.

Sixty students participate in the program which is divided into the first and second year classes.

To start out the year, all members attended a communication lab at Camp Dodge. This was an all day lab to test the students' listening ability for gaining information. Members also went to a delegated assembly in Cedar Falls, Iowa, at which state officers for the DECA Program were elected.

DECA members attended the Area Conference in which all eight Metro schools participated at Southridge Mall. In January and March, the State Conference was held at Valley West Mall. DECA raised money with successful sales of candy, peanuts, and spices.

All students were eligible for participation in the activities Students for Lincoln High sponsored. All activities were planned and carried through under the direction of Miss Gretchen Kauffman. The Halloween party was held in honor of Logan Tiny Tots. This Christmas the club performed a Christmas skit and sponsored a party for kindergartners and first graders at Washington Elementary School. S.L.H. also performed a short skit at sophomore orientation. The officers then gave tours of the school.

Debaters wind-up successful season

The debate team had a very good year. Their numerous trophies are on display in Mrs. Schlak's room.

The 1977-78 Debate Squad participated in 12 tournaments this season. Seniors Craig Bittick and Kevin Jarnagin finished with a 65 percent win record against six states, while Juniors Marty Wilson and Kathy Vanderpool held a 60 percent win record.

The squad was able to place 15 students in the State Individual Events Contest, with Marty, John Hoffman and Dan Reeves coming away with a one rating. Kathy finished first in speaker points at the Roosevelt speech contest.

Executive Interns, under the direction of Mr. Weldon Else, gain occupational experience and knowledge by working in the business world. Students in the Executive Internship program work during the day with an executive of an occupation of their choice. The Interns receive full school credit for participating in this program, which is open to juniors and seniors only.

OE class receives experience

OE students that won in the District Competition were (first row) Tony Fatino, Margaret Burns, (second row) Lorrie Paton, Chris Heck, Lori Carr, Cindy Bishop, Rondelle Klimousky, Vickie Prothero, and Tina Galvan. Judy Williams, OE treasurer, (left) files folders for her employer.

Office Education (OE) is an organization designed to help students who are interested in a business career. OE is divided into two phases. Students that are involved in OE learn about office machinery, filing and other things they will need to know for their jobs. They also have a club in which they participate in fund raising projects. This is the Co-op phase. OEA is a phase in which the students get experience from working in offices in the community.

OE is led by Miss Janyce Abarr. The student officers are Judy Macasa, president, Tina Galvan, vice-president; Rondelle Klimouski, secretary; Judy Williams, treasurer; Terri Gamble, historian; and Chris Heck, reporter.

Judy Macasa, OE president, works on the job for credit.

Young Office Worker's Club

"We try to coordinate activities which have an interest in the business field," said Mrs. Sally Fisher.

Mrs. Fisher, along with Mrs. Ruth Jacobsen, have helped the students plan the Homecoming Calendar and a spring organizational meeting with pot luck.

Computer helps members get information

The Computer Club, sponsored by Mr. Gary Bagby and Mr. Elbert Jennings, works with the computer all school year. They don't have any contests but the members do know how to work the computer to get valuable information or to program certain games. Officers for Computer Club are Dale Anderson, president; Tom Briggs, vice-president; Murray Althiem, secretary and treasurer.

Field Day is good experience for Math Club

Math Club had many months of review to get ready for their trip to Creighton University for their annual Field Day.

The Field Day events included a Chalk Talk Event, the Leap-Frog Relay, and both classes of the Mad Hatter Marathon. In the Chalk Talk the contestant has to explain mathematical principles. The Leap Frog involves two people working on separate test, and then at the end of a time limit, switching test. A marathon depends on speed as problems are shown on a screen.

Officers are Mike Clark, president; Dave Lange, vice-president; Bill Durbin, secretary; Elling Eidbo, treasurer.

This year marked the second year of the existence of Radio Broadcasting Club.

The club has improved its show greatly over the past year. The students involved also gained first hand knowledge in broadcasting and basic Federal Communication Commission rules.

The sponsor of the club is Miss Margaret Olson, English department.

The Lincoln Show is heard over KDPS, 88.1 FM at 6 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays. The club hopes to broadcast throughout the summer.

Students volunteer study periods

Many students gave up their free study periods and time before school this year so they could help in the nurses office, the library, the audio visual room, the counselors office, and the Student Center.

Duties performed by the various volunteers were such things as shelving and checking out books, sorting mail, collecting absent slips, and transporting audio visual equipment.

Volunteers working in the nurses and counselors offices were responsible for checking people in and out, while workers in the Student Center sold food.

Helping students in the nurses office were Diane Smith and Julie Jaeger.

Helpers in the office were Tracy Forbes, Peggy Fairchild, Sue Barkley, Lori Button, Kathy Forbes, and Janet Larson. (Left) Jodey Nelson and Pam Enos serve food to students in the Student Center.

Selling candy for students is part of Jodey Nelson's job in the Student Center. Sue Shielks (above right), along with Mrs. Holt, librarian, helps students find information for reports.

Synchro team holds water show

Synchro team members are (first row) Blythe Powell, Marybeth Kissel, Nora Stundins, Amy Ackerman, Sherri Anderson, Kathy Erickson, Beda Soliday, Cassie Cioccio, Leigh Potthoff, Locke Brenton, Kathy Dennis, (second row) Cory Cady, Patty Howell, Shelly Burson, Carla Martinez, April Pankuck, Barb Rohm, Beth Theormer, Kim Hoffman, Cindy Singleton, Emily Edwards, and Beth Moffit.

The synchronized pageant adds a touch of beauty to the Lincoln pool annually. The show is directed by Jean Frazier. The officers of synchronized swimming are President Vickie Felice, Vice-Presidents Beda Soliday and Leigh Potthoff, Treasurer Beth Theormer, Secretary Kee-ly Alton, Art Director Dana Speridon, and Publicity Director Cassie Cioccio. All members are kept on the go to get the show underway by April.

The beginning of the school year brings the search for new members to the synchronized team. This year's theme was Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow, selected to bring out some special memories in life.

Officers of the Synchronized Swim Team were (seated) Vickie Felice, Cassie Cioccio, Leigh Potthoff, (standing) Beth Theormer, and Beda Soliday.

Probates included (second row) April Pankuck, Blythe Powell, Shelly Burson, Barb Rohm, Carla Martinez, Kim Hoffman (first row) Cory Cady, Marybeth Kissel, Kathy Erickson, Amy Ackerman, Sherri Anderson, Nora Stundins.

Juniors Emily Edwards, Kathy Dennis, Locke Brenton, Beth Moffit, and Cindy Singleton perform an act for the Synchro Show.

Railsplitters finish second in Metro

The Railsplitters compiled a 19-8 over-all record and a 9-5 Metro record to finish second behind defending Metro champs Dowling.

The team was led by five players who received All-Metro honors. Tom Dusterhoft and Steve Wallace were named to the first team, Jerry Ellston and Jim Sanders were on the second team, and Mike Bruchshaw was given honorable mention.

The players felt the loss of Bob Umdenstock, who signed a pro contract with the Cincinnati Reds. In spite of his short season, Bob was still named to first team All-State, and second team All-Region.

The team was made up mostly of juniors and only five seniors. Next year's team should be strong, drawing on the experience of the juniors and the talent of the upcoming sophomores.

Junior Varsity had an excellent season with an 18-3 record. The Rails easily won the Metro Conference title. In the field and at the plate, the young Rails showed powerful determination and talent.

Bob Strohn led the pitching department with a 9-1 record. The Railsplitters had a batting average of .369 with Pat Jury and Steve Seid hitting .442 and .412 respectively.

Coach Denny Deardon feels that the enthusiasm and talent of the JV squad will add to the depth of the varsity team.

Seven returning starters dominate Railettes

Softball team (first row) Joan Walker, Terri Dale, Linda Wilde, Debbie Seeber, Lisa Wilde, Kay Gable, and Kelly Larsen, (second row) Karen Allen, Jeri Burdick, Rhonda Rice, Brenda Rice, and Debbie Snyder.

The Railettes bagged a second place tie for the Metro, placing three girls on the All-Metro team: Brenda Rice, Rhonda Rice, and Debbie Snyder.

In tournament play the girls cleaned house at Saydel bringing home first place at their invitational. The railettes were upset at Urbandale, but bounced back for a consolation title.

Head Coach Larry Hayes (above left) helps Kay Gable with her batting. Mr. Hayes has been head coach of the team since girls softball started at Lincoln. The coaches, as well as the teams, have learned from each other.

Assistant Coach Jerry Atkinson (lower left) adds much to the softball team with his good association with the members. Patience is the virtue when you're in Mr. A's place.

Brenda Rice (above) lets loose of a ball hoping to send another batter back to the dug-out. 1977 ended Brenda's four-year career as "the" pitcher of the softball team. She's the first girl to ever make the All-Metro team three years in a row.

Volleyball's second year improves record

Senior Rhonda Rice (left) and teammate Linda Wilde, junior, make a gallant attempt for the ball. But Wilde comes up on the short end.

Lisa Wilde perfects a difficult over-the-back shot on the return.

Chicako Sugiyama leaps high, punching the ball over the net for a Lincoln score.

Volleyball finished with a 6-10 record. A 10-19 over all record proved to be an achievement in two years. Head coach Cherri Mortice completed her second season at Lincoln.

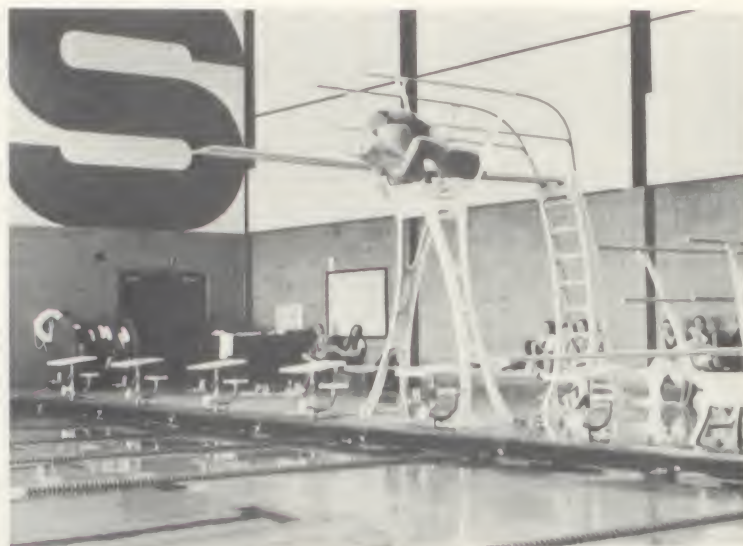

Foreign exchange student, Chicako Sugiyama improved the team, leading them in serving. Rhonda Rice, a second team All-Metro choice, helped lead the team, along with honorable mention choices Sugiyama and Stacy McArthur.

Volleyball is a world wide sport and growing fast. "Some day, it will be as popular as basketball and football," commented Junior Lisa Wilde.

Swimmers end season with powerful record

Lori Kirshbaum, Brenda Morgan, April Pankuuk, Tammy Skoglund, Carla Martinez (fourth row) Amy Gabbert, Karla Fisher, Tawnee Denny, Janel Pollock, Kristi Worthington, Patty Howell, Marybeth Kissell, Blythe Powell, Paula Selner, Cory Cady, Coach Hickman.

The girls swim team ended their season with an 8-1-2 record. A surprising tie with Roosevelt added extra interest to a fine season.

This was one of Lincoln's best years at the State meet. The six girls who competed were Cory Cady, Terry Champ, Debbie Judish, Blythe Powell, Tammy Randleman, and Beda Soliday. Blythe Powell had an excellent finish with third in the 500-yard freestyle, and sixth in the 200 yard freestyle. Debbie Judish finished tenth in diving. All other competitors had a fine showing at State.

Even though the team has seven graduating seniors, the experience of the sophomores and juniors should add to the depth of the team next year.

Harriers finish season with 4-3 record

Delmedge, Guy Neff, Joe Gazzo, Matt Smith, Bill Hollenrake, Mike Lindeman.

Hampered by inconsistency, the cross-country team got off to a slow start. At the Ames Invitational the Rails finished ninth. The following week the Harriers bounced back with a very respectable third place finish at the Marshalltown Invitational.

The boys continued to show improvement by placing first in a triangular against East and North. After attaining an eighth place finish in the Tom Karpan Invitational, the Rails went on to defeat Tech at Ewing Park.

The Harriers came in a disappointing sixth place in the Metro, but came back strong with a third place finish at the Urbandale Invitational, where Bill Hollenrake finished tenth, Joe Gazzo twelfth, and Dave Prall sixteenth.

(top right) Lincoln runners set the pace as they turn for home in the East meet.

Cross Country finishes with 8-2 record

Coach Phil Martin led the Girls Cross-Country team to the best dual record in their five years of competition.

The girls had a successful season as they placed high in all their invitational meets, bringing home many awards.

At the Adel Invitational, the girls placed second out of 16 teams, bringing home the first trophy for the girls' team.

Placing only fifth in Metro, the girls went on to districts to place tenth out of 36 teams.

Girls Cross-Country was led to a strong season by Captains Lynda Weberg and Junior Brenda Belinsky. Seniors Kim Hohenshell, Kris Frangos and Junior Sandy Hitchcock were close behind to make up a strong Varsity Team. Other team members were Senior Joan Walker, Junior Jeannie Saltzman and Sophomore Suzie Clair.

Victory delights Homecoming crowd

Despite their 3-6 record the Railsplitters had a very interesting season by accomplishing something that few Lincoln teams have ever achieved. The Rails not only defeated Dowling but kept them scoreless, a first time achievement in 65 Metro games.

Leading the Rails were five All-Metro seniors: First Team All-Metro, Chuck Fargo, linebacker; Jack Rush, guard; Wood Young, defensive back; Second Team All-Metro, Tim Houge, halfback; Steve Wallace, split end.

According to Coach Cecil Rhoads, "The 1977 football season was a season of excitement, joy, sorrow, and frustration. The Railsplitters were young and inexperienced at the start of the season and made some critical mistakes, resulting in games that were both exciting and frustrating. The Homecoming game was the start of good things and the Railsplitters put on their best offensive show of the season, overwhelming East 30-14. The following week, a group of confident, determined young men played their best defensive game of the season and turned in one of the biggest upsets in Lincoln history, shutting out Dowling 7-0."

JV gains valuable experience in 2-4 season

Junior Rocky Gillum sweeps around left end to elude the single arm grasp of a Tech Defender as he turns on the speed, fire in his eyes, outrunning an oncoming Tech player.

Junior Steve Karnes shows perfect form as he booms a powerful punt in hard fought game against the Engineers from Tech High.

Junior quarterback Jim Piper makes gallant attempt to shake away from a determined Tech lineman to carry out the rest of the play.

Junior Pat Fogue comes up short with only the shirt tail of a determined Tech runner, while Junior Jay Squiers closes in to make sure he gets no farther.

Junior varsity schedules are designed to develop a varsity football program. Winning games is not of prime importance in a successful season.

The philosophy behind Lincoln JV football is providing the opportunity to gain experience, improve and execute skills, and enhance team play.

The season provided bright spots in the form of leadership and improvement. Some of the most improved players offensively, are Rocky Gillum, Sam LaBonia, Jim McClelland and Tom Rains; defensively, Pat Fogue, Todd Mack, Dave Phillips and Jim Piper. The squad finished with a 2-4 record.

Head Coach Dave Ortale has a 14-19-1 record in four years as sophomore coach. The record does not show the ability and hard work that are brought out each year.

This year's team was no exception, with a 2-5-1 record. The squad never quit once. The sophomores had had two goals at the start of the season, one to improve, the other to win.

Although the scores often times went against them, the team fought hard and worked hard to accomplish their goals. The two games that the squad won were overwhelming victories, 19-0 derailing of Tech and a 28-7 riding over Roosevelt.

Former Head Coach Bob VanderLinden came back to help Coach Ortale. Coach Ortale along with VanderLinden and Assistant Coach Bob Findley feel that we will be hearing a lot from Jerry Clingman, Todd Dalrymple, Paul Duffy, Todd Hankins, and Lance Harrison in the near future.

Heartbreaking season ends; Sophs finish with 2-5-1 record

John Izzoleana sweeps around right end to elude an oncoming tackler for valuable yardage against the Rough Riders from Roosevelt.

Lance Harrison (52) and an unidentified Lincoln teammate anxiously await an important tackle on a Roosevelt play.

North, East victories highlight Frosh season

Athletic Director Lowell Reed takes time out to discuss the rules and boundaries with Head Coach Gary McClanahan before the freshman game.

Assistant Coach Walt Kennedy stops for Lincoln photographers before he starts class at Sacred Heart Elementary.

Togetherness and fundamentals are stressed strongly at the freshman level. School spirit and loyalty is a major aspect taught in the beginning year.

The season was highlighted by a 38-0 slaying of North and a 28-0 scalping of East.

After winning three straight, the team took a tumble following the cancelled Dowling game, losing three straight. But the team recovered to tame Hoover in their season finale 34-14.

Head Coach Gary McClanahan feels that this year's team is the best he has ever dealt with. "If the guys stay together, by the time they are seniors, they will have a fine shot at the Metro title."

(above) Senior Captains Anne Clark and Kim Minshall rest on the balance beam in between events.

It was a difficult year for the gymnasts. Adjustment to a new coach, Cheryl Mortice, was a major hurdle. With Miss Mortice's help, Senior Kim Minshall qualified for regionals. Minsall tied for seventh place.

Even though the gymnasts had a record of 0-9 they learned a great deal through experience. Minshall said, "We all had to work together to make a successful season within the team. Next year's team will be strong and even more competitive."

Rail Cagers gain needed experience

Short on experience and short on size might be the best way to describe the 77-78 basketball squad. Following the early season loss of center Fred Trujillo because of injury, the Rails had to go with inexperienced juniors to gain the needed height to compete in the strong Metro conference.

Lack of experience and tough competition led to many close defeats. This in turn, developed an inferiority complex that was never overcome throughout the season. There was plenty of hustle and much hard work, but the positive mental attitude it takes to be a winner was never apparent.

Junior Rich Bates led the Rails with a 14.6 scoring average. The rails lost six games by less than three points. The Rails will return four of five starters next year with Juniors Mick Anderson, Craig Kern, Rich Bates, and Steve Karnes. Sophomores Fred West and John Cameron will also play a major role in next year's season.

Sophomores finish season with 8-12 record

Sophomore Basketball had its ups and downs during the season. Even though the sophomores didn't have a winning season, they lost half of their games by only five points or less. At the end of the season the Sophs were hurt by the loss of their big man, Fred West, who was brought up by the Varsity. The team was led by top scorer John Cameron.

Overall, the sophomores should help the Varsity in future years. The Sophomores were coached by Dennis Deardon who took over after Jerry Schartner stepped down after coaching the Sophomores for eleven seasons.

The highlight of the girls Varsity Basketball was winning the Urbandale Sectional tournament. They defeated three teams to win it, beating Hoover in the championship game 100-96. The team ended the season with an over-all record of 10-13 and a 5-9 conference record.

The team was led in the forward court by two seniors, Rhonda Rice and Sandy Laugk. Together they scored over 1,300 points, an average of 57 points per game. Rhonda shot an amazing 62 percent from the field and 61 percent from the freethrow line. Rhonda made All-Metro and All Central Iowa special mention.

The guard court was led by All-Metro Melissa Pace and Teresa Shay, both averaging 4.6 steals per game.

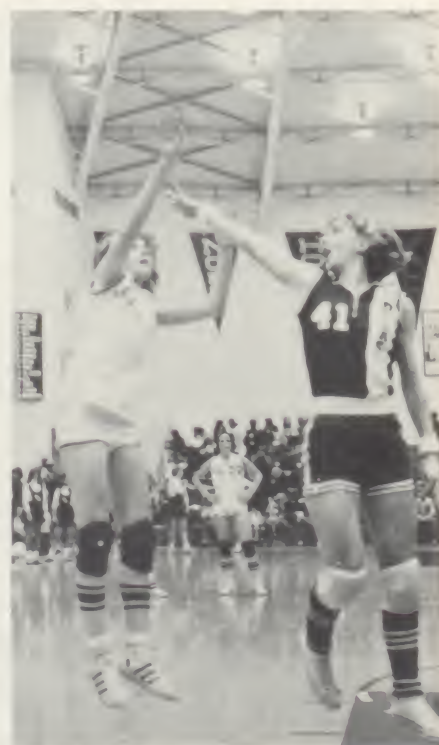

Junior Debbie Conrath "blows" by Valley defender for an easy basket in close game at home.

(first row) Lori Hart, Kim Douglas, Linda Coellenr, Lori Pascuzzi, Jackie Walker, Sherry Haskins, Phyllis Lane. (second row) Cindy Conner, Lori Greco, Diane Rickert, Denise Ward, Mary Saville, Etta Mae Creveling,

Sophomore girls basketball team did not have an impressive season, losing their first five ball games. Finishing 7-12 (overall) and 6-8 (Metro) the girls fought hard in every game.

Defense was the high spot for the girls, progressing competitively each ball game, giving up an average of 56 points a game and a total of 265 steals during the year.

Leading the defense was Kim Douglas with 52 thefts and Lori Greco totaling 49 thefts both averaging three per game, with Douglas leading in rebounds, 99 (five per game).

The offense which averaged 55 points per game was led by Lori Anderson, a 44 percent shooter from the field and a 68 percent shooter from the charity stripe and averaging 24 points per game.

"For many of the girls, a future is very prominent," commented Coach Atkinson.

"Sophomores all over the city were the most impressive I've ever seen and I feel our girls held their own."

Rail Icers finish competitive season

Williams, Allen Turnquest, Jim Beyer, Bruce Coughenower, Marty Sutton, Bob Strohn, Bill Albright, Steve Strohn. (not pictured) Mark Lasnek, Dan Wohlford.

The Lincoln hockey team is a member of the Metro high school hockey league. Their opponents included Valley, Dowling, Ankeny, Hoover, Roosevelt, Urbandale, Ames, Waterloo and Mason City. Often there aren't enough players to make a team from one school, so they combine. Lincoln had players from East, Urbandale and a goalie from Southeast Polk.

Games were played on Sunday nights at the Ice Arena.

Lincoln placed Junior Bob Strohn on the first team all-state defense. Along with Strohn on the all-state team were Tim Preuninger on the second team as a forward and Steve Strohn as a sportsmanship award winner.

(above) Lincoln Iciers apply pressure to Urbandale goaltender. Rails ended the year by placing three players on the All-State squad.

Water Polo lacks competition

Girl's water polo team members were (first row) Billy Horton, Beda Soliday, Beth Theormer, Leigh Potoff, Tammy Randleman, and Brenda Birdsell. (second row) Kris Worthington, Patty Howell, Tammy Sckogland, Marleen Griffis, Karan Backstrum, Blythe Powell, Corey Cady, and Shelly Cosgrove.

It is ironic the water polo team was listed in the Guinness Book of World Records, and turned out to be the only team in the state this year. In spite of the lack of competition the team will play other schools from other states in a tournament at Iowa City.

Even though they had no meets the water polo team had a good turnout in numbers and had fun at the sport.

Wrestlers close successful season

Wrestling team: (first row) Dave Weaver, Jim Griffiths, Pat Mitchell, Tony Colosimo, Ron Bristow, (second row) Ken Houseman, Rick Stapes, Jim McClellen, Jeff McWherter, (third row) Craig Warfield; manager, Dave Crise, Jim Judge, and Coach Larry Hayes.

Senior Rick Stapes draws Dowling state champion John Campana in the first round of the Urbandale Invitational.

The wrestlers had a successful season, placing three wrestlers in the state tournament: Dave Crise, Jeff Hendricks, Jim Judge. They completed with a 7-4 dual meet record, finished first in the Knoxville pin tournament and second in the Saydel Invitational.

Lincoln finished third in their invitational leaving Dave Crise, and Jim Judge at first place in their weight divisions. The Railsplitters invited the Des Moines schools and Boone to their meet this year.

Returning letterwinners from last year are: Seniors Dave Crise, Brian Gaumer, Jeff Hendricks, Jim Judge, Pat Mitchell, Rick Stapes, and Juniors, Dean Ayala, Ron Bristow, and Tony Colosimo. The Grapplers included two freshmen, Dave Weaver at 98 pounds, and Jim Griffiths at 105 pounds.

The team, coached by Larry Hayes and Don Williams, added Mr. John Ligouri, a Lincoln alumnus, who will coach the freshmen team.

Co-captain Jim Judge puts a move on his opponent. He led the team with victories.

Jeff Hendricks (top) tangles with Hoover wrestler. Tony Colosimo (lower) tries for a pin.

Co-captain Brian Gaumer works to take down challenger.

Wrestling Aids: (first row) Karen Edwards, Christina Fusaro, Tessie Funaro, Gina Nicolina, Sue Muto, (second row) Kim Treanor, Tammie Fisher, Jill Irving.

Junior Varsity Grapplers end strong season

Coach Donn Williams paces behind J.V. wrestlers while Varsity Coach Larry Hayes looks on for new prospects.

Wrestling is an individual sport. Hard work and dedication makes a competitive wrestler. On the Junior Varsity level a wrestler must work harder to become a varsity contender.

The squad's highest point during the season was placing eight wrestlers in the Tech High Invitational. Hard work helped five of the Grapplers to place first and three to follow at second. Finishing first were Juniors Mark Barry (145), Joe Harrison (155), Jerry Short (unlimited), and Sophomore Aaron Edwards (138) and Dave Gorshe (185). Finishing second were Sophomore Gene Carpino (126), freshman Bob Colosimo (119) and Scott McClelland (unlimited).

The squad finished with a 6-5 team record.

Confidence strengthens soccer team

The 1977-78 soccer team was led by offensive captain John Leo and defensive captains Ken Ball and Mike Amend.

With experience from the 1976-77 team the players feel confident with this year's performance. Five season stater Ken Ball said, "Our chances for the Metro title this year are great. Our freshman goalie Steve White should add to the depth to the team."

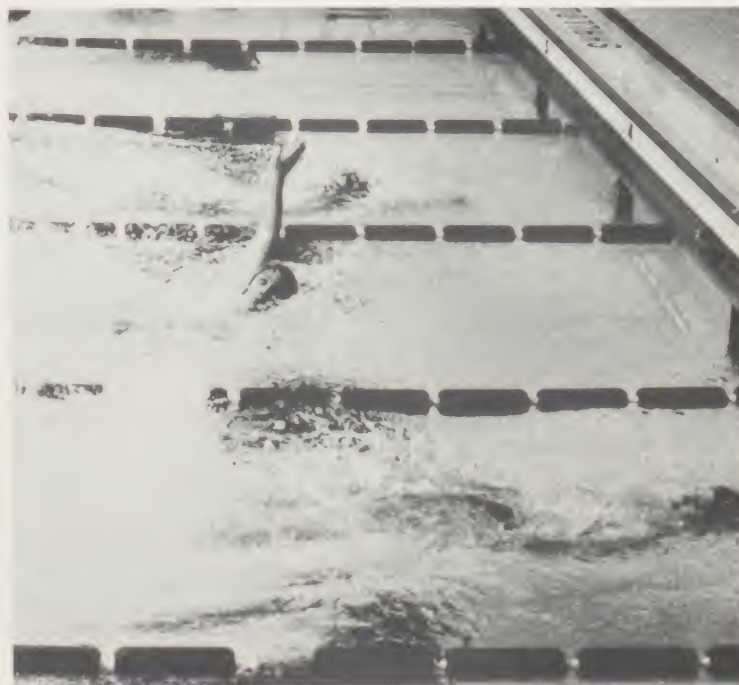

Tankers advance three to State

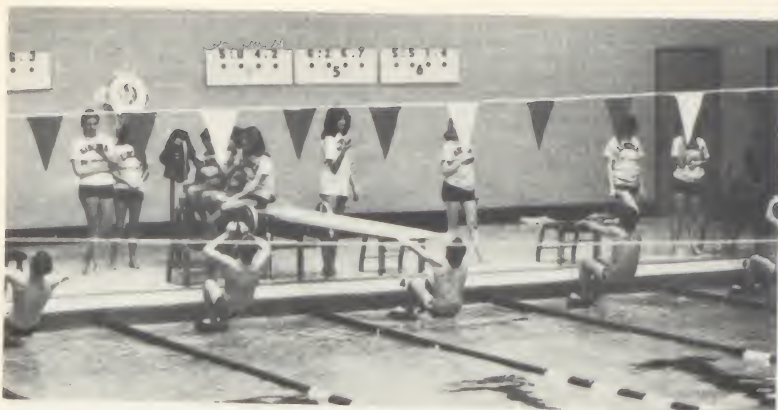

Boys Varsity Swimming Team:

The boys swimming team, coached by Jim Hickman and assisted by Mark Hurley, consisted mainly of freshmen and sophomores. Captains Bill Judkins and Tony Klucking pulled the team together by helping keep discipline and getting the team fired up before each meet.

The Tankers placed three swimmers in state competition: Senior Tony Klucking, diver; Sophomore Kelly Soliday; and Junior Jay Squiers. One of the highlights of the season was Kelly Soliday's second place finish in the breaststroke at the Metro conference meet.

(above) Kelly Soliday swims to victory in 100-yard breaststroke. (right) Tony Klucking finished inward one and a half to take first place against Roosevelt.

Girls track team featured a strong senior group and a promising junior-sophomore group.

The highlights of the season included the Tall Corn Invitational, Norwalk, and the Colfax Invitational.

1978 saw the end of three years of track for Seniors Kris Frangos, Lynda Weberg, Cindy Enslow, Julie Ferguson, Donna Heiderscheidt, Kim Hohenshell, and Joan Walker.

The 1979 season will see strong performances from Juniors Brenda Belinsky, Sandy Hitchcock, Shelly Hoopes, Mary Geronzin, and twins Linda and Lisa Wilde, Sophomores Diane Siech and Theresa Shay.

Strong senior group leads Cindermen

Junior Doug Hetherington warms up before the mile relay.

Led by a powerful senior group the Lincoln track team is expected to finish high in the Metro and tough in State.

April 1 the mile relay team captured the state's best time with a 3:24.1. The mile relay team includes Seniors Jim Sanders, Don St. John, Tim Houge and Junior Doug Hetherington.

The Cindermen, led by Head Coach Bob Vanderlinden and assistant coaches Hugh Drake and Gary McClanahan, practice between one and two hours a day, not including an early practice before school even begins.

Sophomores strengthen varsity

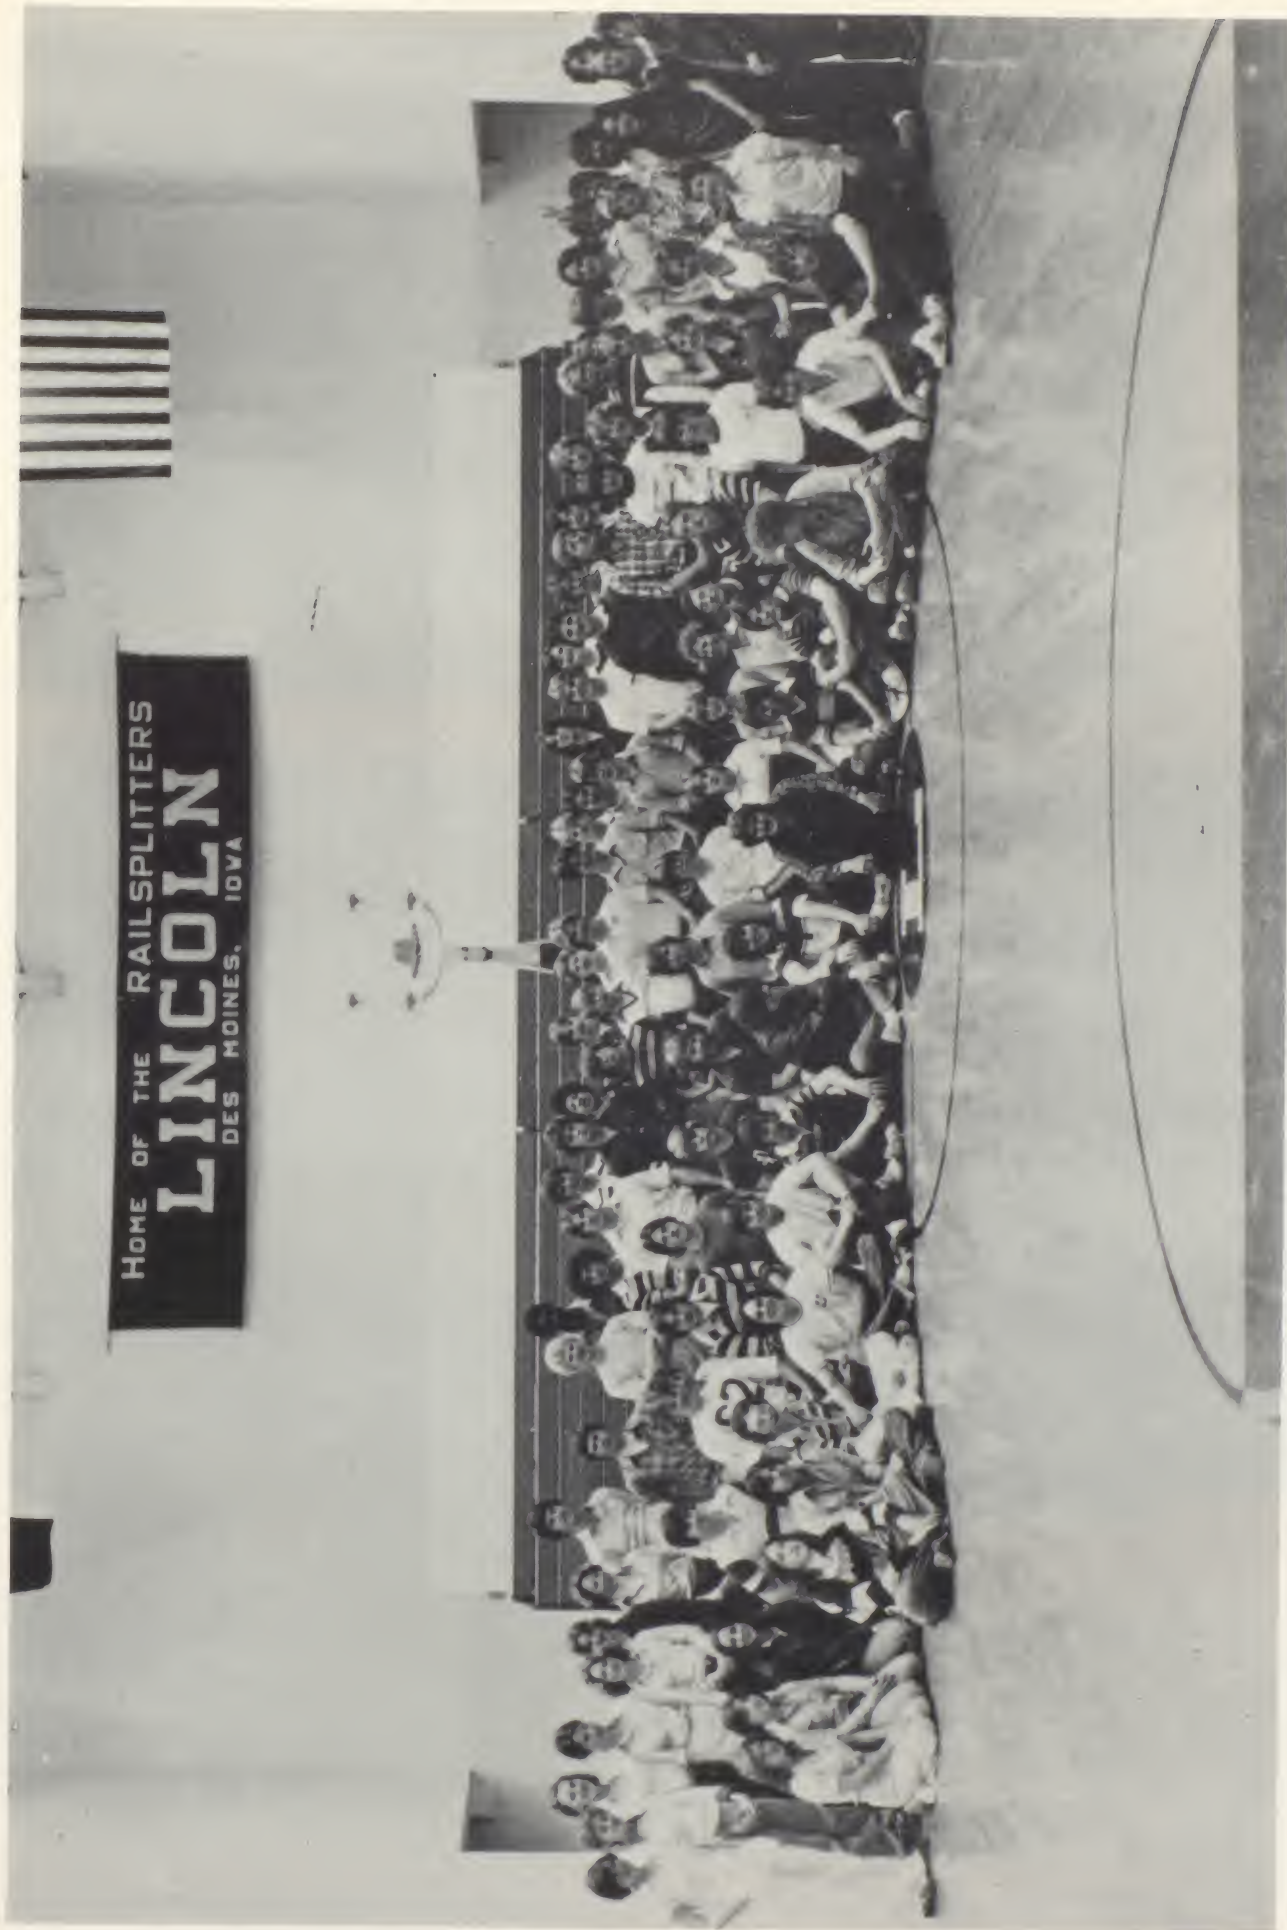

Coach Bob VanderLinden led both varsity and sophomore track. The 1978 sophomore track team has high hopes for a successful season.

Not only do the team members compete in sophomore meets, but they also compete in JV meets. A few of the members compete in varsity meets.

John Darden, Paul Duffy, Mike Gedler, and Randy Magnani are just a few of the sophomores who will make a mark in track at Lincoln.

Coach Bob VanderLinden discusses upcoming meet with sophomores.

Golfers tee-off to good season

The 1978 Lincoln High golf team should be a contender for the Metro title. The boy's team returns six lettermen, including Seniors Tom Benoit, Bob Russel, and Captain Brian Groves. A large number of boys turned out for the opening of the season and the competition is strong for the top spots.

The girl's team also returns all but one starter, and Senior Lynn Webb should be in the running for Metro champ.

Robert Henre hits a topspin backhand for a winner.

Tim Herbert (above) hits an excellent backhand. Doug Huggins and Jeff Wheeldon (below) warm up in doubles.

With nine returning lettermen, the outlook for the boys tennis team looks promising. The team, headed by Captains Robert Henre and Tim Herbert, has the potential to be a real contender for the Metro title.

"With a little luck, I really think we could win the Metro title," commented Henre.

The team will play in the Ottumwa Invitational and the Hoover Invitational to ready for district action with hopes of state qualifiers.

da Tomlinson, Kris Posekany, Shelle Evans, Polly Stone, Lisa Felice, Tina Gedler, Patty Heck, Maria Gedler, Erin Jones, Dawn Kading, Coach John Van Why

Railettes inexperienced, dedicated

Michelle Yakovich shows winning style.

Carolyn Gerdes displays intense concentration while hitting a backhand.

Renee Scott gets wrapped up in hitting a crosscourt forehand.

The girl's tennis team, captained by Michelle Yakovich, will be trying to rebuild this year after losing five seniors to graduation.

"The girls are working very hard, but we just do not have that much experience," said Yakovich.

The girls will host the Lincoln Invitational before going into district competition.

These are a few of their favorite things
(about Lincoln)

"The friendly teachers are the best thing. I also like the numerous classes available to us."

Alan Kincheloe

"The best part of Lincoln is seeing Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Creagh's smiling faces."

Julie Jordan

"My favorite thing is the involvement of all of the students."

Barb Laughlin

"Meeting new people almost every day."

Dawn Lujan

"Our favorite thing at Lincoln is . . . Ann Bruckshaw!"

The Salem Witch Trials Revisited

God, I hate arguing with people who don't know anything
They always insist that they're right —
And I'm wrong. (sigh)
It's insanely aggravating
It makes me feel liked they're burning
Pieces of my mind —
At the stake.

C. Cardamone, Junior

Goodbye

Goodbye for now but not forever,
for forever is such a very long time.
And though we may forget the happiness we shared,
I know it will always be in the back of our minds.
We may now have thought about it at the time, but it was there, you could feel it in our hearts,
and in the air.
One strong hand that held us together,
and that hand was called love.
For love can be expressed in so many ways, and our love was measured in the spirit we gave

Brenda Ferrari, sophomore

THE DEATH OF WINTER THE BIRTH OF SPRING

The sun comes up over the horizon,
Its radiant beams shine over all.
The earth awakens from a cold sleep to absorb the warming glow.
New life begins as the hungry desert flower turns a wilted face upward.
Golden warmth penetrates the petals Sending sparks of life throughout its veins
A red hot, yellow haze descends on the land
Turning the grass from a wheat yellow to a ripe green.
The cold spell is over as the warmth breaks through.
The earth is like a white marshmallow, slowly being turned under the hot flames
Until the barren ground becomes rich and fertile.
Animals begin to wake from their cold winter sleep
Stirring restlessly in their cubby holes.
Cautiously they venture to poke their noses out, into the fresh morning, and sniff the cold crisp air.
A whole new world is awakening under the sun's consistent rays.
The winter has past over night
And the dawning sun brings spring with its smile!

Jackie Walker, sophomore

The Wizard of Oz Syndrome

Well, I tapped my heels together three times,
A turned around,
And whispered "There's no place like home"
Nothing happened.
No house lifting whirlwinds
To transport me back Nothing.

I don't want to disillusion you,
But the town of Oz
Doesn't do a whole lot for me
There are no pink bubbles
That gradually metamorphose into good witches
With golden-rule philosophies
Showing me the way.

Nothing seems to work out right for me.
I can't pull the answer from inside myself —
Like so many of the inhabitants of this town.
And, to tell you the truth,
If I have to follow even one more yellow brick road
I don't know what I'll do.
Besides,
There are too many signs that point both ways,
And just as many brainless scarecrows to guide me.

Also, I'm tired of rusty tin men —
Who don't really care that much
If they have a heart or not Cowardly lions?
Yes. More than I can count.
Lions that are too afraid of new ideas (or old ones)
And are usually guided by the brainless scarecrows.

There were some lucky ones (like Toto)
Who managed to escape from the wrong people
At the right time.

I'm more or less your average Dorothy,
But I'm still trying to find my way back home.
I wasn't luck enough to have dreamed the whole thing

I think it's too late,
And not even the biggest amount of your Sham wizardry —
Could help me now

And I ride through Emerald City —
Wild, but not quite free
On a horse that changes color
With my every glance.

C. Cardamone, junior

To the Senior Class

So many times we have spent together,
and far apart
We've shared the tears of happiness and victory and tears of sadness and disappointments.
We've faced some wins
and some losses.
But our pride remained,
even through the bad times.
We stuck together,
and came through it all safely
We've found independence and invented new ideas
We've had close calls
and a few upsets.
The year passed so fast
that many times were rushed,
But we will never forget the memories
because you made us
what we are.
We wish you luck in the future
The Class '79

Actor, Actor

Actor, actor
on the stage
act me a story
that will be the rage

Make it sweet
make it sad make me feel just that bad

It will be the critic's new found joy
actor, actor
you'll be the star
no longer just the boy you are

Actor, actor
you're a star wondering what you really are up above the world so high like a rhinestone in the sky

Lost in make-up and rehearsed old lines
lost your way
lost your mind

Actor, actor
on the stage
you were the rage
but now you're caged

They bought your soul
took your mind
you're flesh and hair
but not really there

Just an actor, actor
on the stage.

Chris Neuwerth, junior

sunrise

Sunrise streaks the sky
Dawn is almost upon us.
Its warm hands awake us —
Each day —
To a new beginning
It does not dwell on yesterday.
Or a year ago
It starts all over
Memories have no meaning
Only dreams circle our heads
Dancing, and singing —
To a new song,
And a new day.

Kathy Dennis, Junior

Morning

My room is bright
It couldn't be brighter
I see the sun streaming in.
The yellow curtains are warm.
Morning is such a short time of day.
And people . . . some people
Can't be themselves, free and pure
Not even in the morning
If it were raining or cloudy then it would be different
But when the sun helps a new day wobble into life
it is the most honest and sweet time of day that could be.
Those cold faces
Yearning for understanding;
Aren't willing to love morning
like their own child
All their unanswered questions, and dark closed doors could be lit up by the first time of day.
The earliest time of day
The most special time of day.

When nights are dark and cozy and candlelit rooms are for two the sky may be clear or a cloud may be thickly evident
For at this dark time the sun is not caring for me and afternoons are so busy
Filled with people and voices.
When being alone with your own breath of air is longed for by some.
But thoughts of morning wasted
by coffee and crackly newspapers shouting the world's confusion; people are Inside . . . a shelter home that is brightened by a lamp.
For the birds are outside wanting to be heard
And the grass is outside wanting to be felt.
And strangely, people are everywhere wanting to be understood by one who will open up too
To share the misgivings of life.
One can find the best moments with smiles of fresh, pure, clean mornings of the faces of each other
From being outside with eyes that rest from the newborn sun.
And the laughter of joy that resembles the laugh that slips when the sight of a new child smile at you.
The new child
The new morning
both soft and relaxing
to take the hard shells away and put answers
and flowers in a vase.
It is outside a window
for me to enjoy .
if I see the morning.

Massey-Ferguson in Des Moines

Massey-Ferguson is among the world's largest manufacturers of farm machinery, industrial and construction machinery, lawn & garden equipment and diesel engines (Perkins). About 20 per cent of all agricultural tractors, about 20 per cent of all combine harvesters and about 15 per cent of all multicylinder diesel engines made in the Western World bear the MF or Perkins mark. These products are made in 90 factories in 30 countries, half of which are developing nations.

Des Moines is Massey-Ferguson's North American headquarters.

Go Where? You're Kidding!

Now wait a minute . . . we're not kidding. We are dead serious about your future college plans. Drake University offers special advantages for Des Moines students.

Come to Drake and live on campus. Think about the advantages . . . on your own but close enough to home for "emergencies" like borrowing the car or replenishing the bank account at a moment's notice. Think about the advantage you have over the out-of-towners who don't know the ins-and-outs of your hometown.

Think about the many educational advantages at Drake, too. At Drake we have six undergraduate colleges and schools with over 103 major areas of study to choose from. And when your college days are over, we'll even do all we can to get you a job. That's how much our students mean to us.

There's a lot more happening between Forest and University than you realize. Stop by and let's talk about your future. Or, if you're in a hurry, call us at 271-3181.

Go where? Go to Drake, that's where. So, who's kidding!

It is the belief that two and two is really five that makes tomorrow
tomorrow.
